Hospitality Wine Racking Questionnaire

This is enough initial information for us to have a basic understanding of your needs. We will have a representative contact you to discuss your project. We will also request that you fax us one additional item, a sketch of the room or space that your racking will be installed. Please show us as much detail and measurements as you can possibly provide. Remember, we will provide these design services free to you if you provide us complete information and measurements. The quality and detail that we provide to you in our consultation and design package is critically dependent on the details and measurements that you provide us. Some details that are important to this process are things such as ceiling heights, wall measurement, wall labeling, obstruction locations, light switches, door locations and sizes etc. Please fax the room sketch and completed questionnaire to WineRacks.com at 845-645-5309.

Please use the space below to add any additional comments that you think would help us to know about your project.

Is the name of the person you would like to have WineRacks.com contact about this project the same as the name on top of this form? If not, please list the name and phone # of who we should contact. yes No it isn't, please call

Thank you very much for your interest in Hospitality Wine Racking by WineRacks.com. After we receive your faxed room sketch and completed Questionnaire, you will be contacted by one of our representatives to discuss your project. After that, we will put your information into line in the Design Department and you should generally receive your drawing package within 3-4 business days. Lead times for manufacturing vary with the size, scope and product line used in your project. If you have any questions or concerns about any matter, please email Mark Karpinski, Director of Sales at mkarpinski@wineracks.com or call us at 888-687-2517 (Monday thru Friday 9 –5 EST). We take pride in assisting our customers from the initial idea stage to the final nail and continuing through with our lifetime warranty. Your wine and its proper storage and presentation is an investment that we take seriously and we look forward to making it an enjoyable experience through attention to detail and most importantly, attention to our customers. That is what has made WineRacks.com the choice of thousands of private customers, world -class restaurants, hotels, nightclubs, casinos, retail wine stores, country clubs and many more for over fourteen years.
