Selkie Supports IFAW

Data Recovery Software Partners with Fund for Animal Welfare

July 14, 2007

For immediate release – Tugboat Enterprises Ltd, publisher of the award-winning software program Selkie Rescue Data Recovery, is launching a new campaign to help save more than files on a computer. Citing the slogan “save what's worth saving,” the management of Tugboat Enterprises has wholeheartedly endorsed a plan to provide 10% of the sales revenue from their award winning file recovery program Selkie Rescue Data Recovery to the International Fund for Animal Welfare (IFAW).

“We have set up a site dedicated to this project,” said Affiliate Manager Emma Larocque. “Our management team strongly supports the excellent wildlife recovery work of IFAW. Selkie Rescue Data Recovery is all about rescuing endangered files so there seemed to be a fit.”

Selkie is to data rescue what IFAW is to animal protection. The site can be found at www.selkie-ifaw.com and is also through www.ifaw.org/ifaw/general/default.aspx?oid=68242

“We are very pleased to have the folks at Selkie Rescue Data Recovery working with us. Obviously an organization such as ours depends in part on good corporate citizens for financial support. Tugboat's endorsement is welcome and we are sure it will be a positive experience for both IFAW and Tugboat Enterprises,” said JC Bouvier, Online Community Coordinator – IFAW.
