

Seomarketingmedia, an Internet Marketing Agency, launches its long awaited Mentorship Program

The Mentorship program is designed for those who either can't afford the expense of an Internet Marketing Degree or those who really want to jumpstart their Internet business and become successful as an online entrepreneur and business owner.

"Most Internet Marketing courses online really don't give you the "how to's" on internet marketing just the hands on approaches, says CEO, Annette Thomas. "Something is really missing and we have endeavored to fill the gap where other major colleges and schools have failed or come up short."

The money making Program includes topics such as these:

7 Habits Of Highly successful Internet Marketers, these on becoming a very highly paid and successful Internet Entrepreneur

Web Creation Series, for those of you who are interested in a Web Development business or course.
