FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Eastern Philosophy meets Western Psychiatry.

Find out in A Circle of Souls, Preetham Grandhi's debut novel published by iUniverse. In A Circle of Souls, a little girl is found brutally murdered and the town's top detective, perplexed by a complete lack of leads calls in FBI agent Leia Bines. Meanwhile, Dr. Gram, a psychiatrist, searches desperately for the cause of Naya's devastating nightmares. The situations confronting Leia and Peter converge when Naya begins drawing chilling images of murder after being bombarded by the disturbing images in her dreams. Against her better judgment, Leia explores the clues in Naya's crude drawings, only to set off an alarming chain of events.

"The seminal work of this fine author kept me glued to my chair until the adventure was over and the mystery solved. A great read!" --Judge Judy Sheindlin, author of "Don't Pee on My Leg and Tell Me It's Raining," and star of the "Judge Judy" TV show.

"A fascinating debut- this novel takes the reader to the darkest places in the human soul, from a writer with the authenticity to lead us there. A stunning thriller and an important read." --Linda Fairstein, best selling author of "Killer Heat" & "Bad Blood."

"A Circle of Souls is pure psychological suspense. A novel that opens the reader up to the mysteries of the human spirit and the darkness of the human mind. A compelling novel that does more than make you turn the pages, it makes you think."--International Bestseller M.J. Rose, author of "The Reincarnationist" & "The Halo Effect."
