The Hottest T-Shirt Company Around...

StepOneDesigns.com is emerging as one of the hottest new clothing shops around. With unique "walking urban art" fashions, the company's street-smart style is all the RAGE.

/24-7PressRelease/ - February 24, 2006 - T Shirts, Tee Shirts and/or Tees seem to be "all the rage" these days.

However, many consumers are sick and tired of the average "funny T Shirt" or "message based apparel".

As one consumer John Hassan puts it, "what happened to art on T-Shirts?" With this in mind, there is a company answering the call.

Http://www.StepOneDesigns.com president Kerim Antoine Kfuri states: "StepOneDesigns is dedicated to true art on T Shirts. We are not trying to compete with funny tees or promote any specific meassages. We are simply focused on excellent ART and the highest level of quality apparel for our customers."

True to form, the company offers 12 designs which can be seen on 3 different color shirts for both Men and Women. Kfuri further states, "We simply thought that less is more. The way to build a brand is to push select designs on a distinguished color palette".

Apparently, many people agree because from NY to LA shirts have been spotted on the streets and the buzz has been strong.
