topseos.com returns with its monthly list (July, 2007) of leading Hosting firms

/24-7PressRelease/ - July 09, 2007 - Plymouth, IN - <http://www.topseos.com> – topseos.com has created and maintained a singular platform for quality internet marketing service providers to display their services to potential clients. And this July 2007, topseos.com is back with the list of the finest Search Engine Friendly Web Hosting firms, consultants and services. No amount of emphasis is enough – building and maintaining a website is an extremely difficult task. SEM hosting can be defined as the smart and effective maintenance of the website. Flexibility and receptiveness to visitors' needs are the two qualities that need to be given priority by a web host. There are different types of hosting alternatives accessible to clients. These are dedicated, collocated, managed, and shared (or virtual) hosting. What separates one kind of Hosting from another is the degree of involvement that the Hosting firm has with its customers' services. SEM Hosting has an added bonus. Customers can focus all their time energy and efforts towards creating the right content, rather than spending sleepless nights on the maintenance of the website's infrastructure.

Contrary to the popular misconception, hiring SEM Hosting services is more cost-effective as opposed to doing the same within the firm.

Here's the list of the top 5 Hosting firms that have been selected for July 2007:

1. Rackspace Ltd. – Texas
2. Hosting.com – Kentucky
3. Interland, Inc. – Georgia
4. Hostway Corporation – Illinois
5. GoDaddy.com, Inc. – Arizona

The popularity of this ranking is the stamp of its reliability. The top 5 candidates are chosen on the basis of a thorough selection process. These are the criterions based on which the candidates are chosen:

- Flexibility in maintaining changes to websites
- Stability
- Ability to track site statistics
- Reasonably priced
- Flexibility
- Usability
- Overall performance
