20 Finalists for myStage Music Contest

myStage, the biggest Greek online music contest has reached the final voting process! On November 16th mpGreek together with Warner Music have released the 20 finalists voted by the mpGreek users and fans.

/24-7PressRelease/ - November 22, 2007 - myStage, the biggest Greek online music contest has reached the final voting process! On November 16th mpGreek together with Warner Music have released the 20 finalists voted by the mpGreek users and fans. Artists from Greece and abroad have been contesting for the ultimate prize of getting a recording contract with Warner Music Greece.

Starting November 16th - November 30th all users can vote via SMS at 4524 and online to rank the Winning Artist or Band. Artists will be ranked based on the votes (online and SMS), visits and plays of their profile. All vote count will start from the beginning to decide the final winner.

Each week there will be 10 voting users winning prizes from Microsoft Hellas and mpGreek. Microsoft Hellas will offer a total 20 web cameras (LifeCam VX-3000) and 20 wireless headsets (LifeChat ZX-6000) as prizes each week to the users who vote and interact the most. mpGreek will also provide a total of 300 tracks to voting users. mpGreek and Warner Music will announce the myStage contest winner in Early December 2007 in a local award ceremony in a popular Athens hotspot.

More info on the 20 finalists and the new voting can be found on www.mystage.gr
