/24-7PressRelease/ - WHITESTONE, NY, November 28, 2007 - mpGreek the biggest music and entertainment network for Greek digital entertainment announced the re-design of its music and video downloads site mpGreek (www.mpgreek.com) and MusicNow (www.MusicNow.gr) with more than 1.8 million tracks.

The new site includes also a re-deisgn of the branding with new logos for mpGreek and Musicnow. In order to celebrate the new site mpGreek will be have a major sale of all its services with 50% off on all downloads and streaming services on Monday November 26th 2007.

mpGreek has agreements with all major and independent record labels as well as major outlets like CD baby and the Orchard. Greek internet users have increased their average purchases by 47% per sale. The site offers embedded video and audio player, better navigation and will introduce more services like mp3 downloads, free album covers downloads, CD transfer and more.

These strategic initiatives are part of mpGreek's ongoing Internet strategy, and include sleek upgrades to the look and feel of its sites that will serve to enhance the overall music sales options for its users.

Specifically the new sections include:

- top downloads for songs and albums
- new releases
- top artists
- top music videos
- top music categories
- free e-radio streaming with HOT Hits

All charts and lists are generated 100% by user statistics based on the activity of the day, week and month.

Mr. Alexis Kombogiannis, Director of mpGreek commented: "The re-launch of mpGreek is the next step in our developing online strategy. We have made significant upgrades to both the content and functionality of our greek and international music sales , unveiling new and improved online destination that is more interactive, has more contents and biographies and is user-friendly.
