Granite Shield Gets a Home Sold in a Tough Market

Make your home ready to sell fast and with more equity than other homes by using Granite Shield

/24-7PressRelease/ - CANYON LAKE, CA, December 11, 2007 - People often ask what to do to their home to make it sell quicker. Most of the time they really aren't prepared for a straight answer. In a tough market, it's usually the best looking homes at the most competitive prices, in the most sought after location that sell, while other lonely homes sit on the market awhile just waiting for the right person.

So, what can be done quickly, efficiently, and cost effective? There's virtually nothing you can do to improve the location of your home and there may not be much you can do about what the area is selling for, your financial situation or how much money you currently owe on the home. But you can get your home looking good at a reasonable price!

There's no doubt that granite is in. People (men and women alike) love updated kitchens and bathrooms. In today's market homebuyers typically pick a home that's in the best turnkey condition at the best price and they're usually looking for homes that already have granite installed. Prices of granite have come down and are affordable. To get your home sold faster or prepared to sell faster and at a higher price when the real estate market picks up just might be to install granite countertops in the kitchen and baths if you want to sell your home quicker. This, of course, would be dependant on the fact that the style and condition of the existing cabinetry would warrant such an upgrade such as new cabinets, reconditioning or refacing. Kitchen and baths are definitely where to put your money if you are trying to sell your home and going the extra mile and choosing granite will give your home a competitive advantage over other lonely homes sitting out there begging to be sold.

Granite Shield has a permanent lifetime warranted sealer that's transferable to the new homeowner. Your new homebuyer will love the fact they never have to seal their granite again and don't have to worry about staining. The process makes the granite smoother, shinier and maintenance free.
