/24-7PressRelease/ - PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL, December 14, 2007 - Club Safari, located adjacent to the Marriott Palm Beach Gardens Hotel, still rocks the night away until 3am - even after 17 years since opening. This New Year's Eve will be no exception, with the club staying open until 5 a.m. this year.

Club Safari offers a true night club experience, with an incredible light show, resident DJ, and music to dance to all night long. Most hotel nightclubs died out in the 80's, but this high energy, safari-decorated club is rated as one of the top 100 clubs in the world by worldsbestbars.com, and is a South Florida favorite to many locals and out-of-towners.

"Did you work all night and not get the chance to party?" is the question Club Safari is posing this New Year's Eve. Catering to service industry workers this year, they are staying open until dawn. With no cover charge after 3 a.m., this after-dusk club is offering "In the Biz" drink specials to those with proof of working in the service industry. An advance ticket purchase of $25 includes party favors, champagne toast at midnight, and balloon drop with fabulous prizes, and while seating is available, it is not guaranteed, as this is sure to be one of the hottest New Year's Eve destinations in town. Call (561) 622-8888 ext. 7110 for details and reservations.

For nights other than New Year's Eve, Club Safari is still larger than life. The Club features laser lights, video remixing, and a state-of-the-art sound system, making this Palm Beach night club the perfect dance destination.
