All Pro West: New Trailer Superstore is Committed to Being the One-Stop Trailer Source with the Largest Selection of Trailers in Central Pennsylvania

The launch of the new Trailer Superstore, which is easily accessible from Maryland, Virginia and New Jersey allows for a greater selection of in stock trailers to ensure that customers find the best trailer for their needs and receive the best service possible.

/24-7PressRelease/ - MECHANICSBURG, PA, January 17, 2008 - All Pro West's new 14,000 square foot facility, located in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania, features a 6 Bay Service Center with 2 drive troughs, an extensive parts department, and a custom accessory installation department, giving All Pro West the capacity to inspect, repair or customize your trailer just the way you want it. You can view our Custom Trailer using this link http://allprowest.com/3Trick_Your_Trailer.html

Owners, Jake & Sherry Wagner began All Pro as a wholesale business in 1985 and entered into retail in 1990. "Our locations have grown from a single warehouse to our current full function facility and Trailer Superstore" states Wagner. "Many consumers in the market for a trailer will drive hundreds of miles to our facility for our large selection, competitive prices, and a service department that can handle all their needs or special requests."

All Pro West offers on the spot trailer financing, custom accessory installation, warranty department and comprehensive parts and service department. "It's apparent why we have proven ourselves to be the only place you need to shop for all of your trailer needs" states Wagner. "Our efforts are focused on meeting and exceeding our customer's expectations every day." You can view more information on Trailer Financing here <http://allprowest.com/1Finance.html>

All Pro West also offers quality Snow Plows and Salt Spreaders, Tow Bars, and Hitches, including installation and fabrication and a full line of Car, Truck and Trailer Accessories from top name manufacturers. "We specialize in customization and install everything we sell." replies Wagner. "We use state of the art paint on all accessories matching them with your vehicle to give you the showroom look."

All Pro West also offers Golf Carts Sales and Service. "We offer many different model golf carts in both gas and electric configurations." Wagner replies. "With numerous options available to personalize and tailor your machine to your exact needs."
