/24-7PressRelease/ - February 04, 2008 - Indieheaven.com, the leading organization for Christian independent musicians announces the 2008 MOMENTUM AWARDS are now in the FINAL voting phase. The Momentum Awards, now in it's 3rd year, are the premier award recognition program for independents. "The artist services are unbelievable!" quotes a very excited yshwa4life. He's been hanging around Indieheaven for a while now and is slowly beginning to gain, "momentum" as a new and up and coming artist. With his debut CD "In the Beginning" finally complete and mastered by Indieheaven founder Keith Mohr and two more in the works waiting to be finalized, he certainly is on his way to becoming more known in the CCM.

Indieheaven president, Keith Mohr states, "as the music industry continues to change and more and more artists are either staying independent or going back to their independent roots, it is important to recognize the pursuit of excellence in this growing industry. The basis for the Momentum Awards is not competition, but comrades applauding and encouraging one another to create momentum in their music missions. We teach independents that momentum is paramount to success as an artist."
