/24-7PressRelease/ - LEBANON, TN, February 08, 2008 - Linda Williams "The Bra Lady" and Dr. Chris Corley, DC will discuss breast and back health with Coleman Walker on Coleman & Co. February 22, 2008 at 7:30 a.m. Linda will discuss how the Norvell Custom Fit Bra supports women's breast health. Dr. Corley will talk about the need for proper breast support to aid women who experience neck back and shoulder pain due to the weight and pulling of poorly supported breasts. This appearance on Coleman & Co. kicks off the Grand Opening of The Elegant Woman Boutique at 1113-B North Castle Heights Ave. in Lebanon, TN. The Elegant Woman Boutique is the retail division of LW Manufacturing.

The owner of L.W. Manufacturing L.L.C. is Linda Williams. Linda was born and raised in Alexandria, TN. She worked for 24 years at the original Norvell manufacturer. When the first owners of the Norvell Custom Fit Bra decided to quit the business, Linda knew she had to take action. She bought the equipment and patterns and moved manufacturing to Lebanon, TN. Her goal was to continue making a high quality, American made bra for her customers and to provide manufacturing jobs in Wilson County. She then expanded the business by opening The Elegant Woman Boutique.

The public is invited to come to the Grand Opening of the Elegant Woman Boutique on February 22 and 23. You will have the opportunity to meet Linda Williams - The Bra Lady, and register for prizes.
