Across the Border to Help Horses in Tucson

Liz Mitten Ryan to Appear at Equine Voices Fundraiser

/24-7PressRelease/ - GIBSONS, BC, CANADA, February 16, 2008 - Across the Border to Help Equine Voices in Tucson

Liz Mitten Ryan, World-renowned Canadian Artist-Equine Communicator and Author of One with the Herd: A Spiritual Journey will appear at the Equine Voices Fundraiser in Tucson on Saturday, March 8 from 11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The mission of Equine Voices - saving Premarin (PMU) mares and foals from slaughter - resonates strongly with Ms. Mitten Ryan. She has already used the sale of her stunning artwork to benefit animal welfare groups around the world. Now, she will travel to Tucson to sell her book at the fundraiser and wholeheartedly support the work of Equine Voices Rescue.

One with the Herd: A Spiritual Journey is already capturing hearts all across North America. It is a finalist in the U.S.A. National Best Books 2007 Awards. This visionary work is an intimate record of one woman's journey with her semi-wild horses - yet it has broad implications for the repair of all our lives. The text is enriched by Mitten Ryan's original artwork, poetry, photographs and journal entries.

Don't miss this opportunity to meet the author, support Equine Voices Rescue and enhance your own unforgettable journey.

Visit Mitten Ryan and the herd at www.onewiththeherd.com - then visit in-person on March 8 at Horse Haven Equestrian Centre in Tucson. Call Karen Pomroy at 520-398-2814 or visit www.equinevoices.org for more information about this very special fundraising event for the horses.
