Power Manager 3.7.2 - Reduce your Mac's carbon footprint

DssW announces the release of Power Manager 3.7.2 for Apple Mac computers. Power Manager 3 helps schools, businesses, and homes save energy by automating their Mac computers.

/24-7PressRelease/ - HEREFORD, UK, February 19, 2008 - DssW, the leading developer of Mac energy saving software, today announced the release of Power Manager 3.7.2 for Mac OS X. This release includes minor interface improvements and a bug fix for rescheduled events. Power Manager 3 helps schools, businesses, and homes save energy by automating their Macs.

Power Manager 3.7.2 includes an improved Quick Schedule interface, tweaked icons for Mac OS X 10.5's menu bar gradient, and a bug fix for rescheduled events.

"Power Manager provides a real opportunity for Mac users to reduce their carbon footprint." said Graham Miln, DssW's director. "Now is the time to show your clients and customers you care."

Power Manager 3.7.2 fixes a critical bug that could cause events to be skipped. This bug potentially occurred when delaying or altering an event.

Power Manager is a solution for saving energy by automating your Mac. You can schedule your Mac to automatically:

- Start up or wake;
- Shut down;
- Wake;
- Sleep;
- Restart;
- Log out;
- Fast user switch.
