/24-7PressRelease/ - FORT WORTH, TX, February 21, 2008 - Feel the Rush at the Texas Motor Speedway

The Courtyard Marriott DFW Airport North wants to help you plan the perfect NASCAR vacation! Located just 20 miles from the Texas Motor Speedway, the Courtyard DFW Airport North is the ideal hotel for your evening pit stops.

The Texas Motor Speedway hosts all kinds of events, including:

- NASCAR
- Indy
- Hot rod
- Grand Prix

After the Texas Motor Speedway was completed in 1996 it housed many record breaking races, especially at last year's Samsung 500 - Jeff Burton was the first repeat winner in the Sprint Cup! At this year's Sprint Cup Samsung 500 on April 6, 2008, the winner will wear a cowboy hat and fire six-shooters in Victory Lane at the track.

Other races coming up at the Texas Motor Speedway are:

- April 5th, the O'Reilly 300, NASCAR
- June 6th, the Sam's Town 400K, Truck Series
- June 7th, the Bombardier Learjet 500K, America's original nighttime IndyCar race

The Texas Motor Speedway near the Courtyard DFW Airport North is open year round for camping, tours, driving school, and racing school, when races aren't scheduled. Students on the Texas Team will learn to drive official stock cars from the 2005 NEXTEL Cup, and practice various lap programs.

The Courtyard DFW Airport North offers ideal accommodations for NASCAR fans that are flying in for the race at the Texas Motor Speedway! Courtyard DFW Airport North offers complimentary transportation to and from the DFW International airport, free high-speed wireless internet access, and a room with a deluxe king-sized bed.

The Courtyard DFW Airport North will be happy to provide you with the best directions to the Texas Motor Speedway on game days, with roads avoiding the most traffic!
