RoomPainter.Com launches new website for Raleigh-Durham Customers.

RoomPainter.Com has been updated with a "from the consumer eye" standpoint. Finally, a true tradesman with a website that makes sense!

/24-7PressRelease/ - RALEIGH, NC, March 04, 2008 - I specialize in residential interiors. Most of my work is done in owner-occupied fine homes. I also do interiors for the clients of real estate agents & brokers who recommend pre-sale upgrading. On occasion I do rental units or condos for lease.

I also do "select", residential exteriors during the months of May thru October.

Within my specialty I am one of the best painters one is likely to encounter, but I do not think that is why my trade continues.

I get business because my customers can give me their keys , go to work and not worry about a thing.

I work by two guidelines:

»»Always do a little more than is expected

»»Always leave the place a little cleaner than it was.

It seems to work and that's what I do for a living.
