MyBandsMusic Passes 100% Of Download Fees Through To The Artist

MyBandsMusic, launches indie music and social networking site, for where fans and bands meet.

/24-7PressRelease/ - PITTSFIELD, MA, March 27, 2008 -- MyBandsMusic, a recently launched indie music and social networking site, where fans and bands meet, is offering an exceptional and appealing business model for artists looking for 100% pass through sales structure for their downloaded tracks.

MyBandsMusic is great place for Indie Artists to market their music to a new audience of fans. Everything an Indie Artist needs is available including digital and physical distribution of their music, announcements, fan communications, blogs, reviews, charts, video posting, etc.

Literally all the tools that a band needs to implement full blown viral marketing campaigns are here on MyBandsMusic. We encourage all bands that join MyBandsMusic to explore all the power packed features all delivered at no upfront cost and a very attractive 100% payout on download sales.

Currently MyBandsMusic is growing at a rapid rate, attracting listeners and artists alike. There are many benefits for fans and artists and this is only the beginning. The sites steadfast belief of working hand in hand with their members and keeping the personal touch in place will benefit everyone involved.

It is time that the people that make the music have an opportunity to receive 100% of the payout for their hard work and MyBandsMusic now offers that to their artists.
