The San Francisco event is the first of many as myPartner travels the U.S. searching for the hottest hunks to join the contest. Other events are scheduled for Los Angeles, San Diego, Chicago, New York, Minneapolis, Dallas and Miami. All who attend can nominate themselves, their friends, or the cute guy at the next table.

"We are promoting fun, fellowship and perfect partners. We want to do more than just talk about gay pride. Let's take pride in the best among us," said Patrick Perrine, M.A, founder and CEO of myPartner.com

Anyone can nominate their favorite single gay men on the myPartner site. To nominate candidates, go to myPartner.com and select the new America's Gay Bachelor (AGB) section of the site at www.mypartner.com/AmericasGayBachelorContest.html. Post photos and answer questions about the candidate. Above all, tell myPartner what makes the nominee America's Gay Bachelor.

All through April and May anyone can nominate candidates and vote for favorites. Votes will be tallied and 51 bachelors will be selected, one per state plus the nation's capital. From the top 51, five will be selected and flown to San Francisco for final judging. A panel of experts will decide who is America's Gay Bachelor during San Francisco's Gay Pride celebration on June 29th.

"We are conducting a comprehensive search across the U.S. and we don't want to leave anyone out. It's a fair fight for the fairest in all 50 states," said Perrine.

The contest winner will receive a romantic get-a-way trip for two, a $10,000 Private Matchmaking Package with Relationship Expert Patrick Perrine and a chance to be featured in a national publication.
