/24-7PressRelease/ - BYRON, GA, March 29, 2008 - Professional psychic medium Beth Berry uses her well respected gifts in many ways. She has helped a detective in New Jersey find the body of a missing woman, and she has assisted families with missing persons. She also works with individuals whose loved ones have passed away and who want to communicate in some way with them.

Mediumship is the ability to communicate with people (or spirits) who have passed on. In addition to her mediumship gift, Beth Berry is also a clairvoyant, clairaudient and clairsentient. In other words, she sees, hears and senses.

According to Beth, a medium may sense a spirit, feel what they looked like or sense what type of personality they had, or actually see the spirit.

"If you have a loved one who is passed, and would like to know if they are ok and still around you, I can help you," says Beth. "As a psychic medium, I will help you communicate with your loved ones in the spirit world. With my strong belief in God, I use my gift of healing to help others heal physically and emotionally."

According to Beth, her psychic abilities were "awakened" after the sudden death of her brother Brian. "I am now prepared to share my gift with people across the world by giving messages from the spirit world to assist in the healing process," says Beth. "The spirits provide me with evidence so that you will recognize it is your loved one communicating as their persona shines through. You will know by their unique sense of humor or somber tone and have confidence they are in fact speaking to you during our session."

Beth is well known and well respected in her field. She has been interviewed on the Sean Valentine Show on Clear Channel Radio, and has been interviewed and done readings for newspaper columnists in Chicago, Spartanburg, S.C. and Waxahachie, Texas. She is listed as one of 27 psychics on Bob Olsons's site www.bestpsychicdirectory.com, and she is a member of the American Association of Psychics. You can read online two magazine articles about Beth and her transformation and how her gifts opened up at www.sibellaonline.org and www.oracle20-20.com.

The Chicago Sun Times recently published an article about Beth and her psychic gifts. The journalist Mary Mitchell wrote, "Berry conjured up a scene that could have taken place between my mother and my late brother - the first of my siblings to pass away. He died nearly 20 years ago, and my mom still grieves this loss. I was surprised by the number of times she got me to say yes."

In addition to contacts with the spirit world, Beth also does general psychic readings centering on career or work issues. "I will use my clairvoyant and intuitive abilities to help you along your path," says Beth.

You can read testimonials on Beth's website from many people who have benefited from her special gifts.

Beth dedicates her website to her brother Brian, who was killed on Christmas day, 1997. "Thank you for shining your light on me always," Beth writes. "I thank you for giving me the 'kick in the pants' to use my gifts without fear, and to have compassion to help others experience proof of life after death the way you proved to me. My love is with you always."
