Linda Barker joins forces with Bathroom Heaven to produce a stunning new range

Bathroom Heaven team up with TV celebrity and interior designer, Linda Barker, to produce stunning new UK bathroom products and accessories range

/24-7PressRelease/ - LONDON, UK, April 06, 2008 - Well known interior designer and TV celebrity Linda Barker has teamed up with UK bathroom supplier, Bathroom Heaven to produce the Linda Barker Bathroom collection - a stunning new range of bathroom products and accessories.

Linda Barker is passionate about bathrooms, so when the opportunity came to work with a leading UK bathroom company like Bathroom Heaven she was delighted. Over the past few months she has worked together with Bathroom Heaven to produce a stunning, design driven range of bathroom accessories which should compliment any setting and decor.

Speaking about the new range, Linda Barker said: "Design is integral to creating the perfect bathroom for your home. All too often our bathrooms are squeezed into tiny rooms or en suites off the bedroom and often this is when design needs to work its hardest.

"My bathroom range reflects what I would need from a great bathroom. The quality of the materials used is exceptional from the baths to the glass shower screens to the pillar taps and plugs. Bathrooms are intensely private places where we relax and find our sanctuary; I wanted the quality of this experience to be available for everybody, not just the privileged few. These products do just that, at a price that is competitive."

On the company's alliance with Linda, the CEO of Bathroom Heaven, Craig Dessoy said:

"Linda Barker has created a truly stunning bathroom collection. She is one of the most gifted interior designers of her generation and Bathroom Heaven is delighted to be working with her."

When creating the new range, Linda Barker drew upon her experiences of bathrooms around the world in order to design a bathroom collection that would offer practicality, quality and value for money. The range includes the Linda Barker bathroom suite, the Linda Barker brassware collection and the Linda Barker roll top bath.

Each item in the Linda Barker Bathroom Collection is manufactured to a high standard and features the designer's very own special seal of approval, her daisy motif.

About Bathroom Heaven

Bathroom Heaven has been selling bathroom products online since 2002 and has built up a reputation as one of the UK's foremost internet bathroom suppliers.
