Poetic Empowerment Offered by Multi-book Author

Long-time poet offers spiritual insight and empowerment to Christians and non Christians

/24-7PressRelease/ - April 07, 2008 - As Christians, many of us are seeking answers and insight to issues that we experience in our daily walk with God. Sometimes we simply need to know that we are not alone in our struggles and that we will not be judged by our downfalls, situations and circumstances. We need assurance that there is love, understanding and compassion available to us when we fall into various trials, temptations, and sin.

From her struggles before and after becoming a Christian, Dr. Grace LaJoy Henderson offers support and encouragement to both Christians and non Christians through her new CD, Poetic Empowerment. Each of the messages are excerpts from her best-selling book entitled, More Than Mere Words: Poetry that Ministers, which is endorsed by the national motivational speaker, Les Brown.

Poetic Empowerment is poetry that ministers through the spoken word! Listeners will laugh and cry as they listen to the empowering words of Poetic Empowerment. The psaltery music has an anointed jazz feel that perfectly fits the rhythm and mood of each inspirational message.

"That poem, [I Forgive You] just resonated with my spirit" -Les Brown, Author-Motivational Speaker

"The musical score (of I Forgive You) is lovely...the melody is beautiful and compelling...The lyric is inspirational and I like its natural, relaxed, conversational style...The theme of this piece reminds me of Dr. Martin Luther King's writing..." -Taxi

Titles include: I Forgive You, He's Worth It, A Mother's Love, I Want A Man, My God - My Man, God Made Me Special, How Do I Let Go?, The Bad Butt Kids, The Man Without A Face, Don't Leave Your Spouse For Me, Don't Get Caught Up, Love Must Be Real, Anxiety vs. Humility, Being Single and Saved, Judgment Day, Judgment Day Postlude
