Second Start is a Southfield, MI, based bankruptcy law firm Jamie Ryke and Andrew Thav, co-founders, are doing their best to alleviate the negative stigma attached to bankruptcy by educating those in financial disarray and assisting them through their hardships. "Our mission is to save you from the stress, the headaches, and the arguments that accompany debt-related anxiety. We will help you stop your problems at their source." (<http://www.savedme.com>)

Mr. Ryke, Mr. Thav, and the dedicated and highly trained staff at Second Start understand that Michigan leads the country in unemployment and foreclosure rates, as well as having the lowest average household salary in the nation. Because of these depressing statistics, Second Start is actively trying to bring some long overdue relief to fellow Michiganders.
