Rama Hotels and Resorts Sport New Looks

The Rama Candidasa Resort & Spa in East Bali, Indonesia is a seaside retreat that exudes both style and coziness. Each of the resort's 72 guest rooms, each with a private balcony, serves as an oasis of modern luxury.

/24-7PressRelease/ - BALI, INDONESIA, April 19, 2008 - In an effort to better serve its guests, the Rama Candidasa Resort & Spa, as well as the Kuta Seaview Cottage are pleased to announce an upgrade of their facilities.

Both the Rama Candidasa Resort & Spa, as well as the Kuta Seaview Cottage, have spruced up room amenities by improving in-room amenities, such as adding a Duvet-style bed quilt, an LCD television, and by decorating its bathrooms in a standard color palette designed to make guests feel more at home in their surroundings.

Business travelers on the other hand will find the newly refurbished meeting room at the Rama Candidasa Resort & Spa an ideal place to conduct business meetings and the like.

As part of the Rama Hotels Group, a local hotel management company that owns and manages several hotels across Kuta and Candidasa, both the Rama Candidasa Resort & Spa and the Kuta Seaview Cottage exemplify the qualities of ideal resort living. Further information regarding both properties can be found at their websites, <http://www.ramacandidasabali.com> and <http://www.kutaseaviewbali.com>.

Designed and powered by direct reservations specialist DirectWithHotels, guests can verify room availability and rates online over a two-week period from the estimated check-in date without having to leave the comfort of their own homes or offices. They can likewise choose to modify all booking arrangements conveniently, and without any extra cost.
