The Rummana Boutique Resort Offers Special Long-Staying Rates

The Rummana Boutique Resort in Koh Samui, Thailand, is the embodiment of boutique resort living at its finest. Located at the southern end of Lamai Beach, the resort is a mere 18 kilometers from the Samui Airport and 17 kilometers from downtown Koh Samui.

/24-7PressRelease/ - KOH SAMUI, THAILAND, April 19, 2008 - The Rummana Boutique Resort invites guests to take advantage of a special summer promo for long-staying guests. By booking at least one night, guests can avail of free airport transfers, massages and set dinners when they book online.

Between now and 15 July 2008, guests who make reservations for one night will be entitled to a free round-trip airport transfer. Meanwhile, guests who book five nights will be entitled to a complimentary one hour Thai massage at the Baitong Spa. Lastly, guests who book seven nights will get a complimentary set dinner at the Horapa Restaurant.

Strategically located, guests at the Rummana Boutique Resort will find themselves centrally located to Koh Samui's pristine beaches, lush green groves, and sparkling clear blue waters. All of the resort accommodations are furnished in cool, calm tones, and are equipped with modern in-room amenities.

To take advantage of the above-mentioned package, and to avail of other inclusions, please visit the hotel website at <http://www.rummanaresort.com>. Designed and powered by direct reservations specialist DirectWithHotels, guests can verify room availability and rates online over a two-week period from the estimated check-in date without having to leave the comfort of their own homes or offices. They can likewise choose to modify all booking arrangements conveniently, and without any extra cost.
