Creative Contracting Project Featured in House & Home Magazine

Full-service design/build remodel firm, Creative Contracting, had one of their award-winning remodels featured in House & Home Magazine.

/24-7PressRelease/ - NORTH WALES, PA, April 20, 2008 — Full-service design/build remodel firm, Creative Contracting, had one of their award-winning remodels featured in House & Home Magazine.

The March 2008 issue of Montco/Main Line House & Home magazine featured an article on one of Creative Contracting's Contractor of the Year (CotY) Award-winning projects. This award was presented to Creative Contracting by the Bucks-Mont National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) for a residential addition over $250,000.

A friend of the homeowners referred them to Creative Contracting to help them realize their dreams of expanding their home. They wanted improve the flow and functionality of their 25-year-old home, while also expanding their kitchen, adding a sunroom and a first-floor in-law/guest suite. Creative Contracting worked hand in hand with the homeowners to develop a plan that fit their expectations. Additionally, the company customized various details to the clients' specifications allowing them select materials and options that truly fit their needs, also adding convenience and character to their home.

Over the last twenty years Creative Contracting has been recognized for their commitment to quality design, construction, and project management. They have been designated a National Big 50 Remodeling Company by Remodeler Magazine. Creative Contracting is also a named member of the National Top 50 Remodelers by Qualified Remodelers magazine. NARI has awarded the company numerous CotY awards in the categories of design, construction, and management for projects including kitchens, baths, basements, additions and specialty categories.
