Make Carrentals.co.uk Part of Bank Holiday Plans

Incorporating car hire services into holiday preparation is essential urges the price comparison site.

/24-7PressRelease/ - April 23, 2008 - The earlier reservations are made for car hire services, the quicker bank holiday activities can be indulged in. As the May bank holiday is quickly approaching, there is a need to secure car hire rental services with the price comparison site. Doing so ensures that the perfect vehicle type for the holiday excursion will be available on departure day.

Gareth Robinson, managing director of carrentals.co.uk, recommends planning ahead in order to obtain the various price offers many of their companies are offering in anticipation of the upcoming bank holiday. Currently, there is an adequate vehicle supply at various companies in order to meet growing demands for the holiday season. As it draws closer, vehicles will begin to vanish from the availability listings. Booking now will keep that from happening.

The price comparison site works with over 45 various organizations to bring consumers some of the best rates in the industry. Among the listings are Ebookers, Holiday Autos, Opodo, EasyCar and Budget. The company also offers its own pricing list for services as well. When a desired company has been located, customers are taken directly to that website where the transaction is completed.

Carrentals.co.uk names the following locations as the top five destination getaways for the May bank holiday season:

Malaga
Faro
Rome
Edinburgh
Orlando

Price offers for these locations are for a one week rental period and start at 10* per day. This price is for Malaga airport services. Other pricing rates include 11* per day for Faro; 17* per day for Rome and 15* per day for Edinburgh. These and other great pricing offers can be found at carrentals.co.uk. *Prices shown are for seven day rental terms beginning 2 May 2008. These prices may change without notice.
