The Ultimate Ladies' Night Out Deserves the Ultimate Automobile

Exotic car rentals are the perfect finishing touch for bachelorette parties

/24-7PressRelease/ - DALLAS, TX, April 24, 2008 - Bachelor parties have been a tradition for centuries, but the past few decades have seen the girls putting as much effort into a night of pre-nuptial revelry as their male counterparts do. No longer relegated to cheesy male strip clubs, today's bachelorette parties require more planning - and they are a whole lot more fun.

"Women are having just as much fun as men," says Ron Sturgeon, owner of DFW Elite Auto Rental.com. "And just as men favor bachelor parties that include golfing or skydiving, women are also finding ways to celebrate the end of single life for a gal pal in unique ways," says the Dallas luxury car rental agency owner.

Regardless of where the bachelorettes go for their night out, they can get there in style with a one-day luxury car rental from DFW Elite Auto Rental.com. Just as their male counterparts are renting luxury cars to make a day or night out even more memorable, the ladies can add extra pizzazz to the festivities with a bachelorette party car rental that fits the theme of their party.

Among the car rental options for a memorable bachelorette party:

Spa Day: A day of pampering deserves the car of your dreams, and what's better than a ride that pampers you, too? The 2007 Bentley Continental GTC Convertible offers the perfect combination of style and luxury in a car that makes you feel like a queen for the day.

Afternoon Tea: For a proper English tea, nothing gets you there more properly than the 2004 LTI London Taxi. This distinctive set of wheels is common in London, but a rarity here in the U.S., which means you'll turn heads everywhere you go in this unique and memorable London cab.

A Day at the Races: Hey, marriage is always a gamble, so why not do a little pre-wedding gambling with the girls? Win or lose, a day at the racetrack watching the horses run is always a fun-filled escape, and you can arrive with a prancing pony of your own when you rent the 2005 Ferrari F430 F1.

'50s Theme Night: Nostalgia reigns supreme and the '50s remains one of the most evocative decades around. Stage a '50s theme bachelorette party and arrive in style with the sleek, sexy 1955 Mercedes 300SC Cabriolet. This red convertible is a favorite for Valentine's Day car rental in Dallas and often chauffeurs bride and groom at weddings as well. Take it for a full weekend rental and this classic car will add that something extra to a fun-filled bachelor or bachelorette party!

Shop 'Til You Drop: Get in some quality time with your girlfriends when you hit the mall - in style. An Aston Martin Vantage rental or BMW M6 Convertible rental offers a night out of graceful arrivals, priority valet service and head-turning luxury.

Of course, you can always create your own theme - or just rent an exotic car and enjoy a road trip with special friends.

"Marriage is a long road," Sturgeon says. "You might as well get it started in the best car imaginable."
