Juanita Young Inducted into Cambridge Who's Who Executive, Professional & Entrepreneurial Registry

Ms. Young's expertise encompasses working in production and the warehouse unit and utilizing her leadership skills. She brings 15 years of manufacturing management experience to Southwest Windpower, Inc.

/Cambridge Who's Who/ - Flagstaff, AZ, April 24, 2008, Juanita Young, Warehouse Manager for Southwest Windpower, Inc., has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in all aspects of management.

For 20 years, Southwest Windpower has been bringing low-cost, reliable wind energy to the world with applications ranging from remote homes and cabins, sail boats, telecommunications, off shore oil rigs and utility grid connected homes. As the world's largest producer of small wind generators, Southwest Windpower has pioneered new technologies to simplify the use of renewable energy. Ms. Young brings 15 years of manufacturing management experience to the company, where she served as a production supervisor before being named warehouse manager. Her expertise encompasses working in production and the warehouse unit and utilizing her leadership skills. She is proud to play an integral part in the progress and success of the company, which grew by 140 percent in the past few years.

Ms. Young underwent training in liberal arts in Hawaii. She is also a certified scuba diver. She attributes her success to her upbringing, hard work, honesty and practice of treating people the way she would like to be treated. Ms. Young is available to speak with the media, and may be contacted at johnnie@windenergy.com.
