New Addition to MidTen Media sales sets "Legal" precedent

Fast growing Internet media company adds new account manager with legal background. Mid Ten media's expansion to allow companies and agencies to have important online presence.

/24-7PressRelease/ - HENDERSONVILLE, TN, April 24, 2008 - MidTen Media is pleased to announce the addition of Barbara Ebert to its online sales and marketing division. Ms. Ebert joins the company having most recently spent three years as a paralegal and legal assistant in Nashville.

In welcoming Ms. Ebert aboard, MidTen's Sales Director Todd Morefield expressed the company's excitement. "When we decided to expand the reach and effectiveness of our online sales and marketing we wanted to add only top notch media executives. Barbara was by far our top candidate and we are elated that she has decided to join MidTen Media as we continue to grow," said Morefield.

Besides working for Nashville legal firms since graduating from Furman University in 2005 with a degree in Political Science, Ms. Ebert worked as an intern in the office of Congresswoman Tammy Baldwin and also worked for The Original Trivia Time Company. "Both experiences were a lot of fun," said Ms.Ebert. "As a host and dj I was dealing with trivia, and in Washington I sometimes had to deal with minutiae."

Ms. Ebert is also well connected in Nashville as a Hands On Nashville volunteer, a member of the Pre Law Society, the Political Science Club, and the Nashville Sports League.

MidTen Media is one of just a few Nashville area companies that deal with online media sales and marketing and email marketing. MidTen changed its name in 2004 from SendMoreInfo.com and consolidated its operations in Hendersonville, TN. MidTen Media specializes in Online banner advertising, email marketing, and also develops software. The company currently owns ComicCollectorLive.com, Kerclink.com, ClinkMe.com, SendMoreInfo.com, PeltThePundits.com, and MidTenMedia.com.
