Pinyon Properties Announces Rent To Own Homes Division - A Viable Option for Credit Challenged Buyers and Frustrated Sellers

Home Buyers with past credit issues and Home Sellers with no luck selling in the current real estate market are all seriously exploring RENT TO OWN options when contemplating their choices.

/24-7PressRelease/ - CHICAGO, IL, April 26, 2008 -- Pinyon Properties, Inc., a Chicago based real estate company, launched a new division called EasyToBuyNow.com in 2007 specializing in rent to own, rent to own homes and rent to own houses.

The company's primary focus is in the Western Suburbs of Chicago, targeting affordable homes in the median income range. The rent to own homes are all in wonderful condition, many are near new and most are less than 8 years old.

EasyToBuyNow.com works with home buyers who are in need of help. Most of the buyers fall into one of the following categories:

- Recently Divorced - credit suffered as a result
- New Job or Self Employed - need time to build stable work history
- Recent Bankruptcy - in the process of rebuilding credit history
- Health Related Issues - unforeseen health issue damaged credit
- First Time Buyer - lack of credit or no credit history
- Lack of Down Payment - need time to build a down payment

"The typical rent to own homebuyer desperately wants to become a home owner but may only have a small down payment available or their credit scores aren't sufficient to qualify for a reasonable mortgage. The rent to own home buyer will typically need about 6 - 24 months to rebuild credit, accrue rent credits, and to save money for their down payment. The advantage: they can live in the home now while they get their financials affairs in order"

Credit repair is a very big part of the rent to own process. EasyToBuyNow.com works with a select number of local businesses who can provide comprehensive credit repair and lending services to future buyers.

The results have been fantastic thus far. Hear what people are saying:

"My husband and I would like to thank you for the time and effort in helping us find a wonderful home for our family so quickly. Working with you and EasyToBuyNow.com has been both a pleasant and easy experience. Your program is very much appreciated for hard working families like ours who have had a difficult time trying to purchase a home. I will definitely recommend you to others looking for a rent to own home of their own. Thank you again! P.S. My children love their new back yard. Sincerely, The Davis Family"

EasyToBuyNow.com would be happy to discuss all your options and educate you on the rent to own process when you're in the market for your next home.
