MAN HIDES TREASURE ALL AROUND THE WORLD
MAN HIDES TREASURE ALL AROUND THE WORLD

/24-7PressRelease/ - SEATTLE, WA, May 01, 2008 — A massive global hunt is underway—a genuine quest for actual treasures hidden by Gary Garner, author of the new book Through the Eyes of Madness.

Throughout his travels across the globe, Mr. Garner encrypted his personal journals, the basis for Through the Eyes of Madness, with artistic and mathematical codes that will lead readers to the physical clues he's hidden on each of the seven continents.

From beginning to end, Through the Eyes of Madness is laced with a visual and mathematical secret code—but unlike its fictional cousins such as The Da Vinci Code, this book's secret is very real.

Mr. Garner's Website—www.ThroughtheEyesofMadness.com—contains ten cryptic stones that can be unlocked with his codes. The stones will then lead readers to unearth physical clues that point to the ultimate prize at the end of the rainbow.

"Every three years, one key will be available to the first person to crack all ten stones," says Garner. "In the end, there could be multiple key holders who will be offered the adventure of a lifetime and the chance to discover what I have placed just out of reach."

For the past five years, Mr. Garner has been literally homeless and jobless, and more or less without material possessions. During his exploration, he experienced:

- Witnessing a brutal murder on the South China Sea
- The wrath of an angry mob in the midst of a Nepalese civil war
- His own near-death at the heights of Mt. Everest
- Being ambushed and robbed in Costa Rica by very unusual suspects
- Countless other harrowing escapes that illustrated valuable and moving life lessons

"These past few years have been so fantastical and life-altering that even I have trouble believing it," admits Mr. Garner. "But that's why I kept the journals and constructed the book in the way that I did. Now, others can share in the adventure."
