ZOTAC Launches Free Online Gaming Tournament

ZOTAC Cup online lets gamers compete weekly for prizes

/24-7PressRelease/ - DUBAI, UAE, May 03, 2008 - ZOTAC International (MCO) Ltd., a leading NVIDIA AIC, today announced a new free online gaming tournament - the ZOTAC Cup. The ZOTAC Cup is open to all gamers and enthusiasts daring to participate in competitive matches of War Craft III or FIFA 2008.

Gamers and enthusiast all around the world can gather online every Saturday and Sunday to compete for prizes and become the ZOTAC Cup champion for the week in the ZOTAC sponsored event.

Weekly winners of the ZOTAC Cup will win a monetary prize of 100Euro and once a month ZOTAC will up the ante and award the winner a high-end ZOTAC GeForce series graphics card.

"ZOTAC is giving back to the gaming community that has made our ZOTAC GeForce and nForce graphics cards and motherboards successful, with the ZOTAC Cup," said Carsten Berger, marketing director, ZOTAC International. "The ZOTAC Cup is just the first step in ZOTAC's plans for supporting the thriving gaming and enthusiast communities.

The tournament is open to all gamers and powered by GameSports.de. Warcraft III tournaments are conducted Saturdays at 3:00 P.M. while FIFA 2008 tournaments start on Sundays at 2:00 P.M.

It's time to play in the ZOTAC Cup.
