Team Double-Click Builds Strategic Relationship with SharperAgent

Team Double-Click , the country's largest virtual staffing agency, popular for its rigorous screening, interviewing and training process to obtain qualified virtual assistant professionals, recently announced the formation of a strategic partnership with Denver based Sharper Agent.

/24-7PressRelease/ - OURAY, CO, May 03, 2008 - Team Double-Click , the country's largest virtual staffing agency, popular for its rigorous screening, interviewing and training process to obtain qualified virtual assistant professionals, recently announced the formation of a strategic partnership with Denver based Sharper Agent. A leading provider of sphere marketing solutions, SharperAgent's custom-branded marketing suites and powerful eCRM tools enable real estate and mortgage professionals to prospect more effectively, build strong lead pipelines, and ultimately grow customers for life.

Under the new alliance, Team Double-Click will be the exclusive virtual assistant company trusted and used by SharperAgent. With special training and certification on the SharperAgent system available to the over 40,000 virtual assistants in Team Double-Click's network, real estate and lending professionals can expect top-notch assistance for their database management and marketing efforts. Using the professionally designed templates and powerful delivery methods, Team Double-Click 's virtual assistants will aid agents in executing a sophisticated communications plan, allow agents to spend more time focused on selling and less time having to worry about paperwork and administrative tasks. Additionally, Team Double-Click will have the ability to reach out to SharperAgent's clients and aid in the company's continued growth.

Hailed by its clients as a the recession-proof solution to getting administrative tasks handled, Team Double-Click allows clients to save on staffing costs, while still ensuring the work gets done. The Team Double-Click system is so affordable that clients have boasted of saving hundreds of thousands of dollars per year by staffing virtually through the company.

About Team Double-Click . Team Double-Click offers a variety of virtual assistant services including general administrative, sales and marketing, human resources, finance, and real estate transaction coordination. They do the screening, managing, and payment processing. They don't just tell you where you can find a virtual assistant, they assess your needs and match you with one of their highly-skilled and Team Double-Click trained virtual assistants. Then they monitor and nurture that relationship so the client gets the most out of hiring virtually.

The company has an unwavering commitment to its clients' and contractors' success. Team Double-Click combines unparalleled staffing expertise with a dedication to improve their clients' business processes and profits.

Now, you can work with the nation's largest virtual staffing firm, and the only virtual staffing firm to offer a 30 day money-back guarantee. With over eight years of success in virtual staffing, Team Double-Click is confident that it can match you with a professional who has the skills and personality to help you manage your non-profit. Best of all, the company's virtual assistants own their own businesses and take personal responsibility in making your business the success you want it to be.
