DEL ORO INKS DEAL WITH 24k MUSIC NETWORK

Entertainment company to provide studio and production support

/24-7PressRelease/ - STUDIO CITY, CA, May 04, 2008 - The 24k Music Network has signed a deal with Del Oro Music and Filmworks to produce a series of programs at their Studio City facilities. The shows are aimed at college and young adult audiences, and feature exclusive interviews with bands, recording artists, actors, fine artists and even successful entrepreneurs.

Audio versions of the programs will be provided to over 450 college and public radio stations throughout the US and Canada and a video version may be viewed at the company's website at www.24kmusicnetwork.com. The programs will be released on a monthly basis and each includes a series of up to three different interviews with various guests. Some of the initial guests include the popular indie-rock band The Bravery and Grammy-nominated flamenco/jazz guitarist Ottmar Liebert.

Del Oro Music and Filmworks is hosting the interviews at its state-of-the-art recording and taping facilities and providing production support, while leaving artistic direction to the 24k Music Network and its producers. "We are very excited about our upcoming season of shows and the perfection with which Del Oro has handled all of our production needs," says 24k's producer Robert Eibach. "The studios are helping us meet our goal of educating, as well as entertaining, our audiences with this seasons roster of major and up-and-coming pop culture personalities."

The 24k Music Network launches its first series of programs for the 2008 season on April 29, 2008. Program schedules, interviews and more information are available on the network's website.
