Leading Online Legal Document Resource, RealDealDocs.com, Releases UCLA Clinical Study Agreement

RealDealDocs.com is home to over 1 million online legal documents from agreements to contracts for its members to download and print. In this release from RealDealDocs.com, is the Clinical Study Agreement for UCLA.

/24-7PressRelease/ - LOS ANGELES, CA, May 05, 2008 - RealDealDocs.com is a leading resource for online sample legal documents and has just released and made available to the public (at no charge), the clinical study agreement between the University of California, Los Angeles and Northwest Biotherapeutics Inc.

A clinical study agreement is an agreement defining the relationship of parties engaged in a clinical trial. The terms of the UCLA and Northwest Biotherapeutics clinical study agreement states that UCLA will perform a clinical study entitled "Phase 1 Clinical Trial Evaluating Booster Vaccinations of DCVax -Brain for Treatment of Glioblastoma." The agreement goes on to stipulate the terms and conditions for the clinical study agreement including investigator obligations, Northwest Biotherapeutics company obligations, confidentiality, publication, use of UCLA and the Northwest Biotherapeutics company names, inventions, indemnification, insurance and termination.

New medicines are being created and tested at increasing rates. And with the decline in the affordability of health insurance more and more people turn to clinical studies to treat, cure or prevent their ailments. In this case, RealDealDocs.com thought it relevant to release this UCLA clinical study agreement for the education of what the legal obligations and conditions to which these entities are legally bound.
