Dr. Aileen Gonzalez, Pharm D presents a new approach to disease and healing

PSEMIAMI unveils the REBA test device from Europe to detect and treat the root cause of illnesses

/24-7PressRelease/ - MIAMI, FL, May 06, 2008 - Psychosomatic Energetics, PSE, was introduced to Dr. Aileen Gonzalez, Pharm D in Europe. PSE represents a new approach to disease and healing. It is based on the premise that "many chronic diseases are caused by concealed, unresolved emotional conflicts that lead to energy blockages." In diagnosis and therapy, PSE is an alternative - to orthodox medicine and prolonged psychotherapy - that has been successfully practiced for years throughout Europe and Canada.

Conflicts disrupt the proper functioning of the autonomous nervous system, they cause energy congestion and subsequently can result in the body's cells developing supply deficiencies, which can ultimately lead to illness and disease symptoms. The REBA test device, developed by German physician Dr. Reimar Banis, uses a polyfrequency spectrum (PFS) to confront the body with neutral vibrations. [This is the big difference between it and other diagnostic machines that use specific information like nosodes or resonance.] This state-of-the-art microprocessor instrument can identify the energy blockages, emotional conflicts and geopathic stress that disrupt the pathway to physical and emotional health. With the REBA test device (FDA approved) it is possible - for the first time - to measure a patient's energy level both qualitatively and quantitatively.

PSE treats conditions such as sleeplessness, childhood issues, depression, anxiety, addictions (food; alcohol; drug; smoking), weight issues and stress to name a few. It is especially helpful in chronic disorders like cancer, rheumatoid arthritis, Crohn's disease, ADHD, diabetes, hypertension and migraines.

Psychosomatic Energetics combines the knowledge of the subtle energy fields from the eastern world together with the knowledge of psychotherapy of our western world. With the aid of the REBA test device (FDA approved), Dr. Gonzalez can measure a person's energy field (aura) and detect energy blocks within the energy system (chakras), which is where the root cause of most illnesses occur. After completing the prescribed individualized homeopathic remedies, energy will begin to flow again with natural force and increased vitality helps one to heal.
