/24-7PressRelease/ - CHICAGO, IL, May 06, 2008 - The domain www.ineedarichfriend.com will go up for auction for 7 days beginning Monday, May 5, 2008 through Sunday, May 11, 2008. The auction will be held at www.tdnam.com. Bidding will start at $1,000.

The domain "I need a rich friend" was the brainchild of a stay at home Mom who stepped back into the workplace after a few years away. Now that she is back in the workplace full time, she misses her children and wishes she could stay home. Like so many other Mothers, she cannot due to financial needs. She thinks, if only I had a rich friend... A rich friend could help provide seed money for her small business which would allow her to work from home and be at home with her children. This is, of course, the ultimate best of both worlds.

Visit www.tdnam.com during the week of May 5, 2008, and make a bid for www.ineedarichfriend.com.
