Lydia's Professional Uniforms Celebrates Nurses Week 2008

Lydia's Professional Uniforms will be announcing daily contests and promotions on their web site in honor of Nurses Week 2008.

/24-7PressRelease/ - GRAND RAPIDS, MI, May 07, 2008 - Lydia's Professional Uniforms is honoring nurses everywhere for Nurses Week 2008, which takes place May 6th through May 12th. The theme for Nurses Week 2008 is Nurses: Making a Difference Everyday. Because Lydia's strongly believes that nurses really do make a difference every day; they will be showing their appreciation all week long with contests, sales and special offers.

Currently there are two contests taking place. The contests are: Win Your Wishlist and 2008 Nurses Week Photo Contest.

The first contest gives customers a chance to win their wishlist from Lydia's Uniforms. In order to enter this contest, customers must create their own personalized wish list at LydiasUniforms.com. The deadline to do so is May 5th. The winner of this contest will be announced during Nurses Week on the web site's blog. This individual will receive up to $250 worth of free merchandise from their Lydia's wishlist.

The second contest is the annual 2008 Nurses Week Photo Contest. This contest encourages nurses to send in their favorite photo of themselves wearing scrubs. They have until May 11th to do so. One winner will be chosen from the photos received and that winner will receive a $100 gift card to Lydia's Uniforms.

These two contests are only the beginning of the Nurses Week 2008 celebration. Starting tomorrow, other contests and promotions will be announced on a daily basis. Customers should frequently visit LydiasUniforms.com or subscribe to the e-mail list in order to hear about these special offers.
