TUNE IN THIS WEDNESDAY, MAY 7TH, 2008
TO CATCH STILL ALIVE
ON THE TELEMUNDO SHOW- "CADA DIA"

The group called "STILL ALIVE" debut's in the USA on Latin TV.

Colombian Hip-Hop and Reggaeton group STILL ALIVE will make their first big USA appearance on a world Latin TV network- Telemundo.

Group members: SUNDAY and MAKLIKY (brothers) and cousins RJ and BIGDAY. The four will hit the show with a live interview and will perform live their debut single, entitled "Lady."

"We are overwhelmed with joy with what the USA brings us," states Sunday, who wrote the smash hit at the age of 16. "We are focused to show the world we are ready, and have been for quite sometime. We hail from Cali, Colombia and our style is not the same as the rest of the Reggaeton sound; we mix our music with Hip-Hop, Latin music, World, and R and B, which contains a lot of deep-base grooves, party-like beats, high energy, and are always positive and uplifting. We want people to dance and feel our lyrics."

The group enters our country with big USA reviews and with a huge international following already and is constantly gaining spins on the key USA charts. Their music is being played extensively on National, World, and Internet Radio stations. See and hear their music on their Myspace....The group is signed to Patrón Records, which is based out of Phoenix Arizona.

Destiny was at hand.... After 10 years of hard work, many obstacles, and sacrifice...STILL ALIVE has perfected their craft and have created "Un Nuevo Estilo" (A New Style.)

Their name "STILL ALIVE" was written in English over ten years ago in order to have a broader world appeal and was taken from their future dream to one day be on a world stage....

In 2006 STILL ALIVE met up with Abel Romero, CEO of Patrón Records and a long-time DJ veteran/music producer. With only a few resources and a lot of hard work, STILL ALIVE is now closer to that world stage... STILL ALIVE is also heating up their Myspace with close to 1 million hits.... Their debut "LADY" remix video will also be airing on many other Latin video programs this summer....
