/24-7PressRelease/ - AURORA, IL, May 08, 2008 - Kim Weeter QSP, is proud to introduce Kimberly's Kreations, a full service Real Estate Staging and Interior Redesign Company. Kimberly's Kreations offers real estate staging services to both the home seller as well as for Realtors within existing home or new construction markets. Staging services can include everything from the curb to the backyard, as well as everything in between. The way a home flows and the ability to have a listing appeal "emotionally" to the largest number of buyers, is what it takes to make a quick and profitable sale. A staged home will set your property apart from similar, un-staged or even new construction properties, giving your home the competitive edge needed in today's real estate market", states Kim Weeter, owner of Kimberly's Kreations. Kimberly's Kreations will offer clients an affordable experience of Real Estate Staging, either through a do-it-yourself consultation or a full house staging services.
