Sound Authors Radio Show Announces May 9th, 2008 Show Lineup

World Talk Radio broadcasted on the Modavox network features Sound Authors, a live interview talk radio show.

/24-7PressRelease/ - EAST SETAUKET, NY, May 09, 2008 - Each Friday at 1PM Eastern Standard Time, Sound Authors radio show features live interviews and readings from all varieties of authors, known and not-yet-known; all soon-to-be bestselling authors from all walks of life, from Hollywood actors to marathoners, to PhD therapists or life coaches. On this talk radio show, it is the story that counts. Authors sound off on every possible topic, from cuisine to culture, and from nature to nurture.

The show also podcasts each interview separately, and all archived podcasts can be searched from the Sound Authors website at www.soundauthors.com.

The first author guest this week will be Donald Ray Pollock, author of Knockemstiff. His work has appeared in, or is forthcoming in The New York Times, Third Coast, The Journal, Sou'wester, Chiron Review, River Styx, Boulevard, Folio, and The Berkeley Fiction Review. He is currently at work on a novel set in 1965, about a serial killer named Arvin Eugene Russell that he hopes to complete next year.

The second guest featured on the show will Gretchen Neels, an etiquette consultant and founder of Neels & Company. Ms. Neels teaches the forgotten art of etiquette. She has written two handbooks that stress basic etiquette in business life, dining etiquette and image management that are currently being sold at colleges, business schools and law schools across the country. She is an expert not only in etiquette but also in first impressions, networking and interviews.

The third guest on the show will be Beth Feldman, co-author of the fun new parenting book Peeing in Peace: Tales and Tips for Type A Moms. Her blogs also appear on several sites including NYC Moms Blog, Working Mother, New York Metroparents and the Huffington Post, among others. She is also the co-founder of Role Mommy (www.rolmommy.com), an online community and events company for working parents that showcases women at the top of their fields balancing work and family.

The musical guest for the show this week will be Paddy Moloney of the The Chieftains. Six time Grammy winners, The Chieftains, are now recognized for bringing traditional Irish music to the world's attention. They have uncovered the wealth of traditional Irish music that has accumulated over the centuries, making the music their own with a style that is as exhilarating as it is definitive.

Tune in next week, May 16th, to the live show or podcast to hear Richard Guy, author of The Mysterious Receding Seas. He is a Structural Engineer with forty years experience in England, The Middle East, The United States and The West Indies and he has been an engineering consultant for thirty years. During his career he has observed subtle behavioral patterns of earth expansion and receding seas. He writes and speaks extensively on these subjects and the development of ancient civilizations in the high mountains of the earth for which he has been recognized by the International Biographical Center in Cambridge England.

Sound Authors radio show each week is replete with authors from around the country and around the world, each telling their tales, from self-help to fiction, children's books to thrillers, how-to books to corporate guidebooks. Original music is also featured, along with up-and-coming bands and singer-songwriters. Listen for musician interviews and fresh music each week! No need to run out to your nearest bookstore to find the next great book or CD. Tune in to Sound Authors every Friday at 1PM EST on World Talk Radio. Or check out any of the interviews on the web - they are all podcasted within a day or two of the interview. Sound Authors - where authors sound off!

Sound Authors Host Dr. Kent Gustavson's background is in music, but his career has been in publishing. He is the owner of an independent book publisher, and a publishing consultant around the world. His many CDs and his book are available from his website online, or through the Sound Authors website.
