WELCOME TO THE NEW "PIXEL" MARKETPLACE!

A Unique Contest Driven Web Site for Shoppers & Advertisers

TenmilliondollarSG.com is an innovative new website with something for everyone! A one stop site for shoppers, a unique venue for advertisers, in addition to the inherent benefits of one stop shopping, visitors receive multiple chances to win, not only prizes, but a million dollars as well.

/24-7PressRelease/ - May 09, 2008 - TenmilliondollarSG.com is a web site created to bring shopper and advertiser together for a mutually beneficial shopping experience. The availability of convenient, easy to find shopping combined with huge prize opportunities is plenty of reason to visit regularly.

With ten million pixels of advertising space available for purchase, the race is on for vendors to fill the space quickly and attract the largest number of customers possible. Customers are motivated not only to purchase product but by the opportunity to win large cash prizes. Fantastic Benchmark prizes will be given out for each one million dollar pixels of advertising space filled with a grand prize when all ten million are complete. Shoppers will be vying for free gifts and cash prizes up to one million dollars.

FOR THE SHOPPER

As the shopping opportunities at TenmilliondollarSG.com grow, the visitor will find an increasingly wide array of products. Half the fun will be in watching the pixels fill and knowing that as they do the visitor and shopper will each be advancing toward the million dollar prize. In addition, a prize will be awarded each time one million pixels in advertising are sold. Regardless of whether or not a visitor makes a purchase, every click on an ad generates something for someone.

Visitors, who do not make a purchase, will still be entered with each click into a contest to win an iPod Touch when the first million dollar benchmark is achieved. Thirty such prizes will be awarded to the visitors. For those who make purchases, the stakes are higher. Every purchase enters the shopper into a contest for a $10,000 cash prize to be awarded at the million dollar benchmark and, even more spectacular, an entry for the ten million dollar prize to be awarded to one lucky shopper when all ten million pixels are sold.

This clever web site has also included a forum for visitors and shoppers. You can not only enjoy your shopping trip but join up with friends for cyber coffee and discuss issues both personal and global with new and old friends alike. The forum will be whatever the participants want it to be. Visitors can share shopping tips, make new friends or meet up with old ones. Shopping at www.TenmilliondollarSG.com need not be a lonely experience!

FOR THE ADVERTISER

For as little as $100, an advertiser can purchase 100 pixels of space and step into this new shopping arena. At $1 per pixel it is an advertising bargain. Certain to generate business for the advertiser the site is guaranteed for three years. Therefore, the advertiser can be confident when purchasing pixels of a secure, ongoing, cost effective meant of advertising that will generate results.

This unique concept in advertising generates much faster results for the advertiser than found in other online advertising venues. Visitors are motivated to visit and purchase from the advertisers and there is no limit to the number of clicks allowed for the advertiser. Once the ten million pixels of advertising space are sold, cash prizes are awarded to members and shoppers. Winners are picked randomly from random sites assuring each advertiser the same exposure to shoppers. Each ad, regardless of the size, has the same opportunity to draw customers.

In addition, TenmilliondollarSG.com allows the advertiser to change ad copy, images or destination as they desire at any time and as often as necessary. This allows the advertiser to adjust and change their campaign to their changing needs. Every ad attracts attention. Unlike other online advertising venues customers are encouraged to visit and browse and are rewarded for returning to your site over time.

PLENTY OF REASONS TO JOIN

Why spend time randomly searching for shopping sites when you can not only have a huge array of shops at your fingertips but also have increasing opportunities to win prizes as you browse.
