Wealth Building Opportunities at Live Marketing Events

Live marketing events stimulate ideas. The best way to enhance the productivity of your home based business is to learn, grow, network and participate in live events with substantial information. The ideas and personal interactions will add a smile to your bank account now and in the future.

/24-7PressRelease/ - STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, CO, May 09, 2008 - "All riches have their origin in the mind. Wealth is in ideas - not money," stated Robert Collier. Ideas require inspiration and yes, perspiration. You can read all of the books in the world, but unless you implement the ideas, it is a waste of energy. Attending events is even more crucial to success in the home based business industry. Spend the time to meet the leaders face to face. Listen, take notes, ask questions and immerse yourself in the excitement and information. You wouldn't buy a car or a house without going to see it and learn about it personally, why would you invest in a business without personally learning the most important parts? Marketing and people are the critical elements of a business. You learn both by attending live marketing events.

Attending live marketing events, not hype and fluff and puff, but learning essential marketing techniques and fine points are the keys to creating the foundation for success. Elaine Love, The Entrepreneurs' Mentor, continually attends live marketing events to learn and grow in order to teach her team more effectively. Finding has always been reserved for those who meticulously seek. Doors of opportunity are only opened for those who knock. "Small opportunities are often the beginning of great enterprises," says Demosthenes. Take the opportunity to enhance your business and your life and attend live marketing events.

"When opportunity knocks, the entrepreneur answers. The lazy and the timid complain about the noise," states Elaine Love. You are the only one who can make the decision and take the action for yourself. Decide if you are the entrepreneur or not. There is a one day event featuring the best marketing experts in the home based business industry on May 10, 2008. This premier live marketing event will be hosted at the Arizona Grand Resort in Phoenix, AZ. If you are serious about your business, and committed to moving your career and your future forward, you will be there. The best marketers in the home based business industry will be speaking. Come network, listen, learn and prosper.

Elaine Love, The Entrepreneurs' Mentor, continually practices what she professes; "Attend live marketing events. Learn, network, grow and prosper your home based business and your financial future." Elaine will be in Phoenix, AZ for this highly informative marketing training. Live events stimulate ideas and those ideas will be reflected in your bank account.
