Millionaire Blueprints Wins Three Awards for Excellence in Prestigious 2008 American Inhouse Design Competition
Millionaire Blueprints magazine features detailed examples and step-by-step instructions from self-made millionaires.

/24-7PressRelease/ - ARLINGTON, TX, May 10, 2008 -- Millionaire Blueprints magazine, has been awarded three 2008 American Inhouse Design Awards for its January/February 2007, May/June 2007 and July/August 2007 issues. Presented by Graphic Design USA, a national magazine for design professionals that has sponsored competitions for four decades, these awards are the premier showcase for recognizing the creative work of inhouse graphic designers within media companies, corporations, nonprofits, educational and government institutions. The 2008 winners were chosen in April from a record 5,500 entries, with just a shade over 10 percent receiving recognition.

Millionaire Blueprints winning entries will be featured in the Graphic Design USA awards issue, due out this summer.

"These awards are well-deserved," said Sherry Leigh, Vice President and Magazine/Creative Director for Millionaire Blueprints. "Our creative team has a firm grasp on Millionaire Blueprints' vision. Their talent and commitment to excellence are evident on the pages of each magazine we publish."

Last year, Millionaire Blueprints won two 2007 American Inhouse Design awards for the March 2006 and May/June 2006 issues. Both of the winning magazine's covers were featured in the July 2007 Graphic Design USA awards issue.
