Crystal Hawn Honored by Cambridge Who's Who for Excellence in Rehabilitation Services

Ms. Hawn treats patients with neurological and orthopedic disorders.

/Cambridge Who's Who/ - Pennsville, NJ, May 10, 2008, Crystal Hawn, Director of Therapy for Rehab Professional Services, has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in all aspects of providing rehabilitation services.

Ms. Hawn has an impressive background in her field: she started out in healthcare as an occupational therapist and now, as the director of therapy for Rehab Professional Services, Ms. Hawn is responsible for managing the office as well as treating patients with neurological and orthopedic disorders. She finds that working with patients persistently until they are better is the most rewarding aspect of her work. Rehab Professional Services is a rehabilitation company that provides subacute rehabilitation.

After receiving her Bachelor of Health Science from College Misericordia, she went on to receive her Master's Degree from the same institution. She is a member of Pi Theta Epsilon. Ms. Hawn is an expert in occupational therapy and rehabilitation services and is available to speak with the media. Contact (856) 769-1500.
