/24-7PressRelease/ - WESTBORO, MA, May 11, 2008 - The Industrial Leaders group, a network of Web sites connecting industrial buyers and suppliers worldwide announced today they have acquired IndustrialMRO.com, a blog-based networking site for plant maintenance and facility managers at <http://www.IndustrialMRO.com>. According to Julie Gracie, spokeswoman for the company's U.S. division, the agreement will enable Industrial MRO to become a search partner of IndustrialLeaders.com.

Gracie said both sites will provide its users with access to an MRO Industrial Supply Auction hosted by IndustrialSAVER, a store-based site associated with the Industrial Leaders group at <http://www.industrialsaver.com/stores/mro/>. The sites will be seamlessly integrated into the group but remain hosted on separate domains while providing unique content and tools for their visitors and members to utilize.

Recently IndustrialMRO.com released the latest version of its Industrial MRO Supply Directory at <http://www.IndustrialMRO.com/directory.html>. The publication, according to Gracie, focuses primarily on connecting US-based suppliers of MRO products with facility mechanical engineers, plant maintenance and manufacturing managers in national and international markets.
