Blair Hamaty, House Staging Expert, Honored by Cambridge Who's Who for Excellence in Staging and Interior Design

Mr. Hamaty started his company three years ago, after having spent 20 years in various design-related positions. His expertise is in staging homes which are for sale so that they sell quicker and for more money than homes that are not staged.

/Cambridge Who's Who/ - Kingston, MA, May 11, 2008, Blair Hamaty, Owner of Setting the Space, has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in all aspects of home staging and interior design services.

Mr. Hamaty started his company three years ago, after having spent 20 years in various design-related positions. His expertise is in staging homes which are for sale so that they sell quicker and for more money than homes that are not staged. A qualified expert who is doing unique and inventive work, Mr. Hamaty has been written about in various trade publications as well as newspapers and has even been featured in a video produced by The Boston Globe. He attributes his success to his unyielding focus on customer service, something he learned from successful companies for which he has worked in the past. The most rewarding aspect of his work is seeing that his clients are pleased with his work, which they are and recommend him highly. For Mr. Hamaty, owning and operating his own business is truly a dream come true.

Mr. Hamaty attended Suffolk University and has completed various business courses, the most recent being his studying to become an accredited international staging professional which involved coursework as well as hands-on training in the field. He has been treasurer of the local chapter of home stagers and has recently been elected president of the Boston chapter (BIRC, Boston International Association of Home Staging Professionals, Regional Chapter). One of his roles as president is to oversee the selection of local charitable agencies that the Boston chapter of stagers will collaborate and donate time and materials to improve, or "stage."

Setting the Space is a truly unique design firm because it provides staging, interior design, color consultation by an internationally certified color designer, as well as floral design services, too. Blair's "dream-team" adeptly assists him to produce outstanding projects where anything can be accomplished. An offshoot of all this talent is the highly successful completion of several model home projects-the conception and coordination of these were the entire responsibility of Setting the Space. The "look" of the homes, from colors to fabrics to furniture and accessories, were chosen by Setting the Space. Blair and his company remain a sought-after source for builders to complete their model homes in a manner that will greatly appeal to buyers.

Many notable celebrities, one of the wealthiest families in the world, Fortune 500 companies, the regions' top producing, successful realtors and many happy homeowners are all clients of Blair Hamaty, the result of his business acumen.
