Single Cougars Aim to Break the Age Taboo

For Immediate Release Contact: Tom Andrews, 415-479-3800

Single adults of all ages are invited to break the age barrier at the Bay Area's first-ever Single Cougars Party, Thursday, June 12, 2008, 7-9pm, at Park Chalet Garden Restaurant, 1000 Great Highway, San Francisco CA.

/24-7PressRelease/ - SAN RAFAEL, CA, May 14, 2008 - The party is based on Valerie Gibson's Cougar: A Guide for Older Women Dating Younger Men. According to Ms. Gibson, "a cougar is the new breed of single, older woman—confident, sophisticated, desirable, and sexy. She knows exactly what she wants. What she wants is younger men and lots of great sex. What she doesn't want is children, cohabitation, or commitment. It's an irresistible combination for younger men who are more-than-willing prey for these sleek and sexy predators."

"Age discrimination is perhaps the most pervasive prejudice in American Society," says Rich Gosse, Chairman of The Society of Single Professionals, world's largest non-profit singles organization. "Older women, in particular, are victimized by our youth-oriented society. They are regarded as 'non-sexy'. Supposedly every American male is only attracted to nubile 20 year olds found in the centerfolds of men's magazines. The truth is that there are millions of American men who find older women attractive, and we will prove it at tonight's party!"

Rich Gosse is America's foremost authority on finding a romantic partner. He is the author of eight books on this topic, including You CAN Hurry Love, Singles Guide to America, and A Good Man Is EASY to Find ("This is a great book!" Oprah Winfrey). His entertaining advice has been featured by ABC, BBC, CBS, CNN, CNBC, Fox News Live, MSNBC, Oprah, Donahue, Cosmopolitan, Newsweek, Entrepreneur, Business Week, Playboy, Playgirl, The Wall Street Journal, London Times, The Australian, The New Zealand Herald, etc. Mr. Gosse is available to the news media for interviews by calling 415/479-3800.

This event is sponsored by The Society of Single Professionals, world's largest non-profit singles organization. The cost is $10 at the door, which includes a fun Mixer Game, plus appetizers first hour. Dress to impress! Anyone wishing more information about this and many more events for single professionals may visit www.ThePartyHotline.com or call 415/507-9962.
