Adams Homes Brings Brick Back to the Brick City

Now building all brick homes in 5 beautiful communities in and around Ocala. Ocala being the horse capital of the world, Adams Homes is looking to add to the beauty of the rolling hills and horse farms by building beautiful all brick homes.

/24-7PressRelease/ - OCALA, FL, May 14, 2008 - If you are looking for something different than the ordinary Florida stucco home, Adams Homes is happy to give you that difference. They are building all brick homes, at about the same price of building a concrete block stucco home. Brick gives you low or no maintenance, higher insulation values, and an elegance that will be everlasting. And Adams Homes makes it easy for you to have a new brick home. Come see why price is the ultimate amenity when you build with Adams Homes.

go to www.adamshomes.com and just click on Ocala to see all the beautiful communities they are now building in.
